

Georgia ARP Child Care Stabilization Fact Sheet

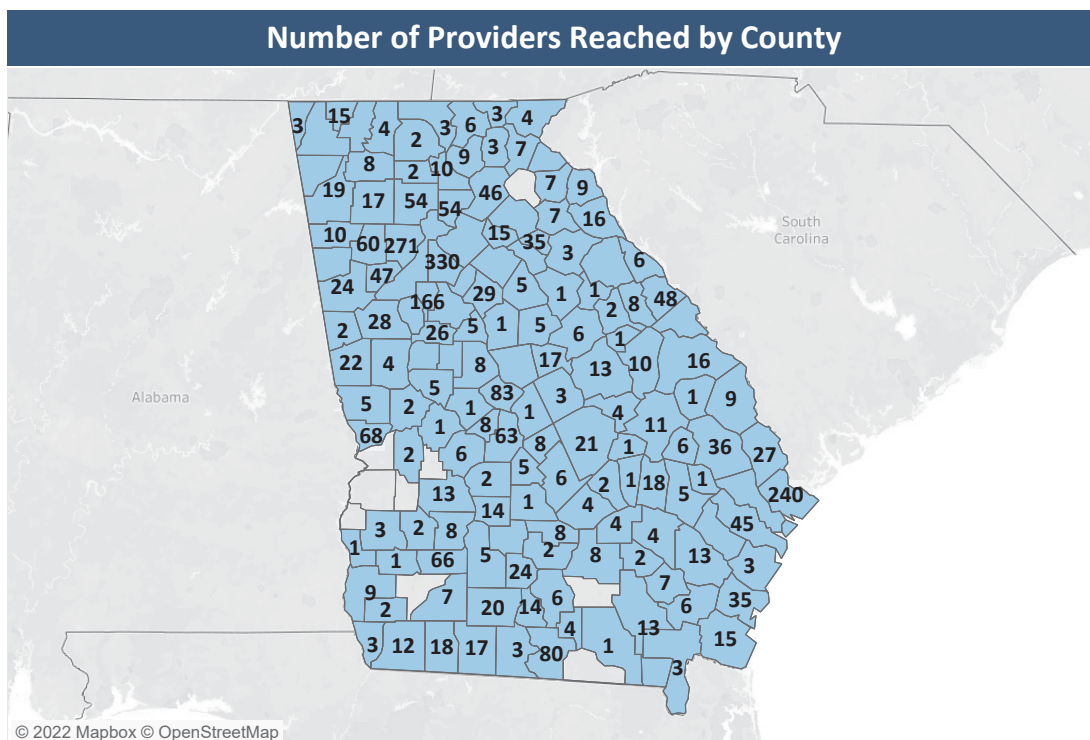

3,870 Child Care Programs in Georgia have already Received American Rescue Plan Stabilization Support, Impacting up to 334,900 Children

ARP's historic investment provided Georgia with $968.3 million for their Child Care Stabilization program. The program has been critical to helping child care centers and family child care providers remain open or reopen, keeping child care workers on the payroll, and ensuring families have reliable options for high quality care while they work. Child care programs are mostly small businesses and are essential for families, communities, and the economy.

The ARP Child Care Stabilization program has been an unprecedented lifeline for the child care sector that helped parents return to work and spurred economic recovery. So far, more than 200,000 child care programs serving as many as 9.5 million children have received assistance across the country from this program.

In Georgia:

- Providers in 94% of Georgia counties have received funds.
- 2,795 child care centers that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- 1,075 child care family homes that received stabilization payments most commonly used them to pay for personnel costs and keep programs staffed.
- Stabilization payments are expected to continue into 2023.

County totals may not sum to the state total due to rounding.
